

Wellness Experience events postponed until further notice

As the situation around Coronavirus (COVID-19) continues to evolve, our first priority is to ensure the health and safety of all Bankmed members.

Bankmed is taking the COVID-19 outbreak seriously and we have taken the decision to postpone all Wellness Experience events planned for this period until further notice. This is to ensure that we adhere to the national lockdown guidelines and protect you and your family during this time. We will keep you informed of new dates for the events, following the national lockdown.

As a valued member of Bankmed we want to keep you informed and alert to our readiness for COVID-19 outbreak. If you need any further information about the virus, visit our COVID-19 page for useful and up-to-date information on how you are covered, how the virus is spread and for live updates. You can also stay informed by following our Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn pages.

Your health and wellbeing remains a priority to us and we encourage you to focus on your health so you can continue to thrive.

Yours in good health

Bankmed
